If I could
The first

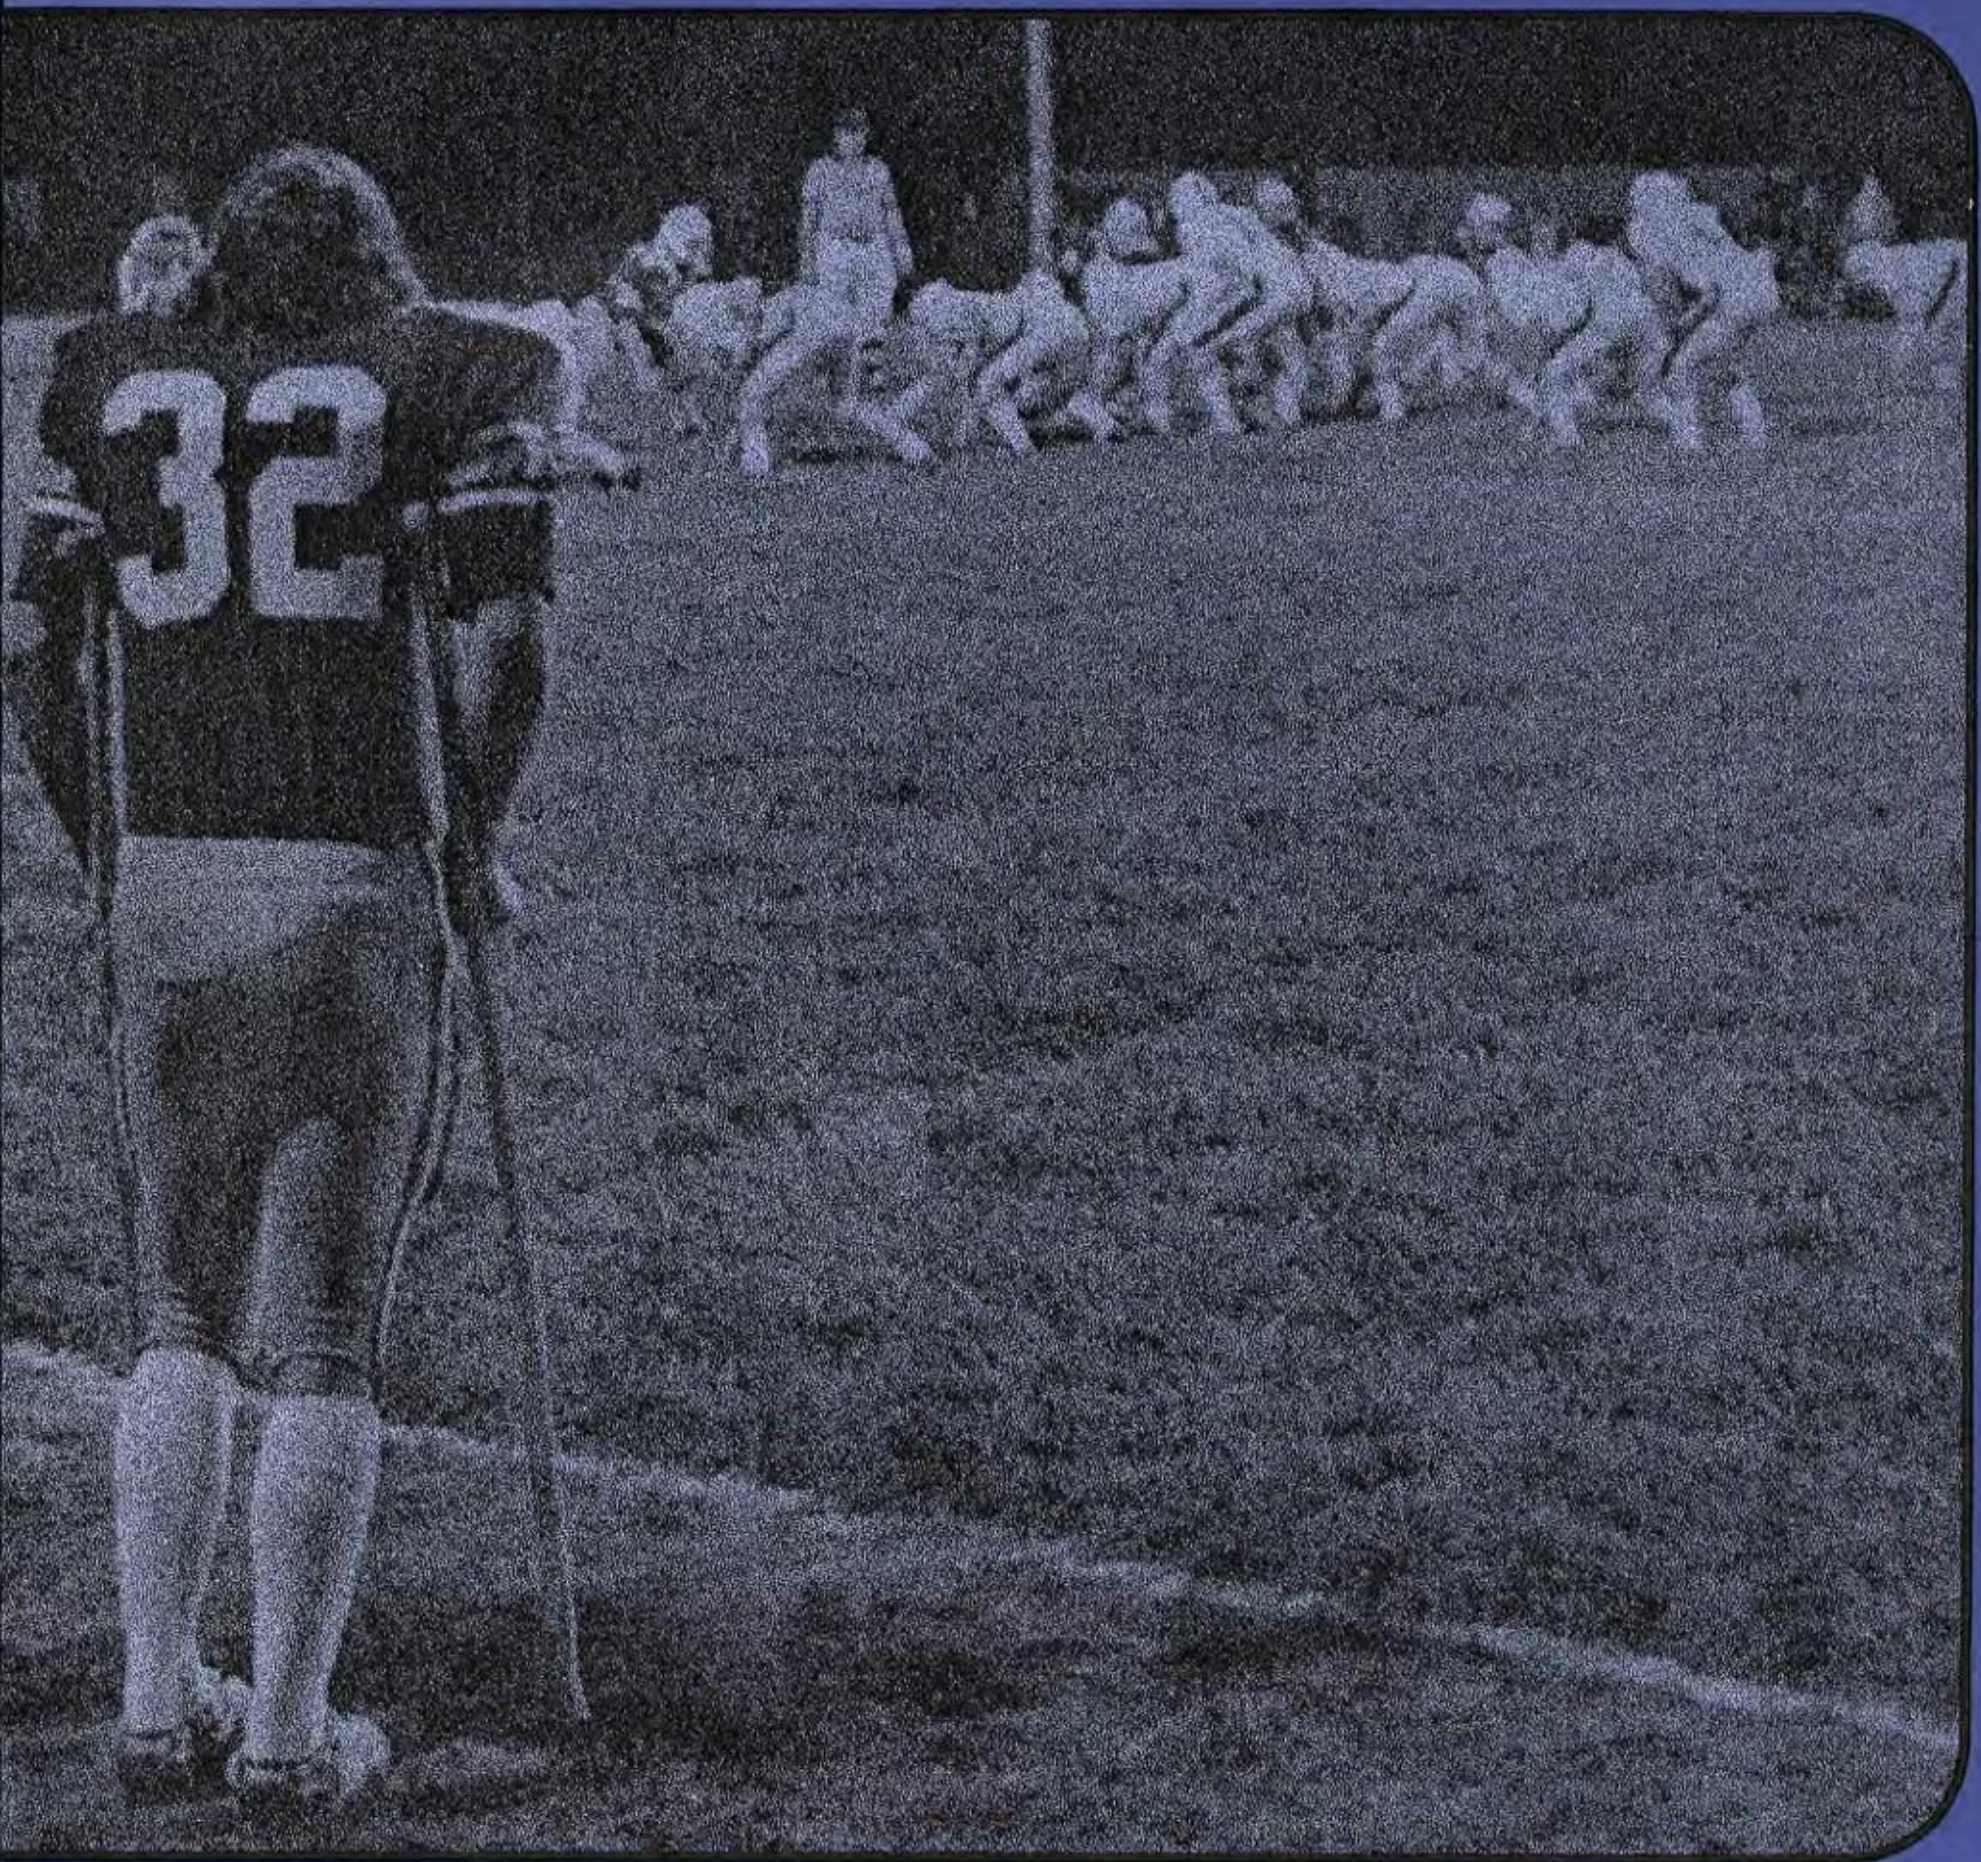

save Time in a bottle

thing that I'd like to do ...

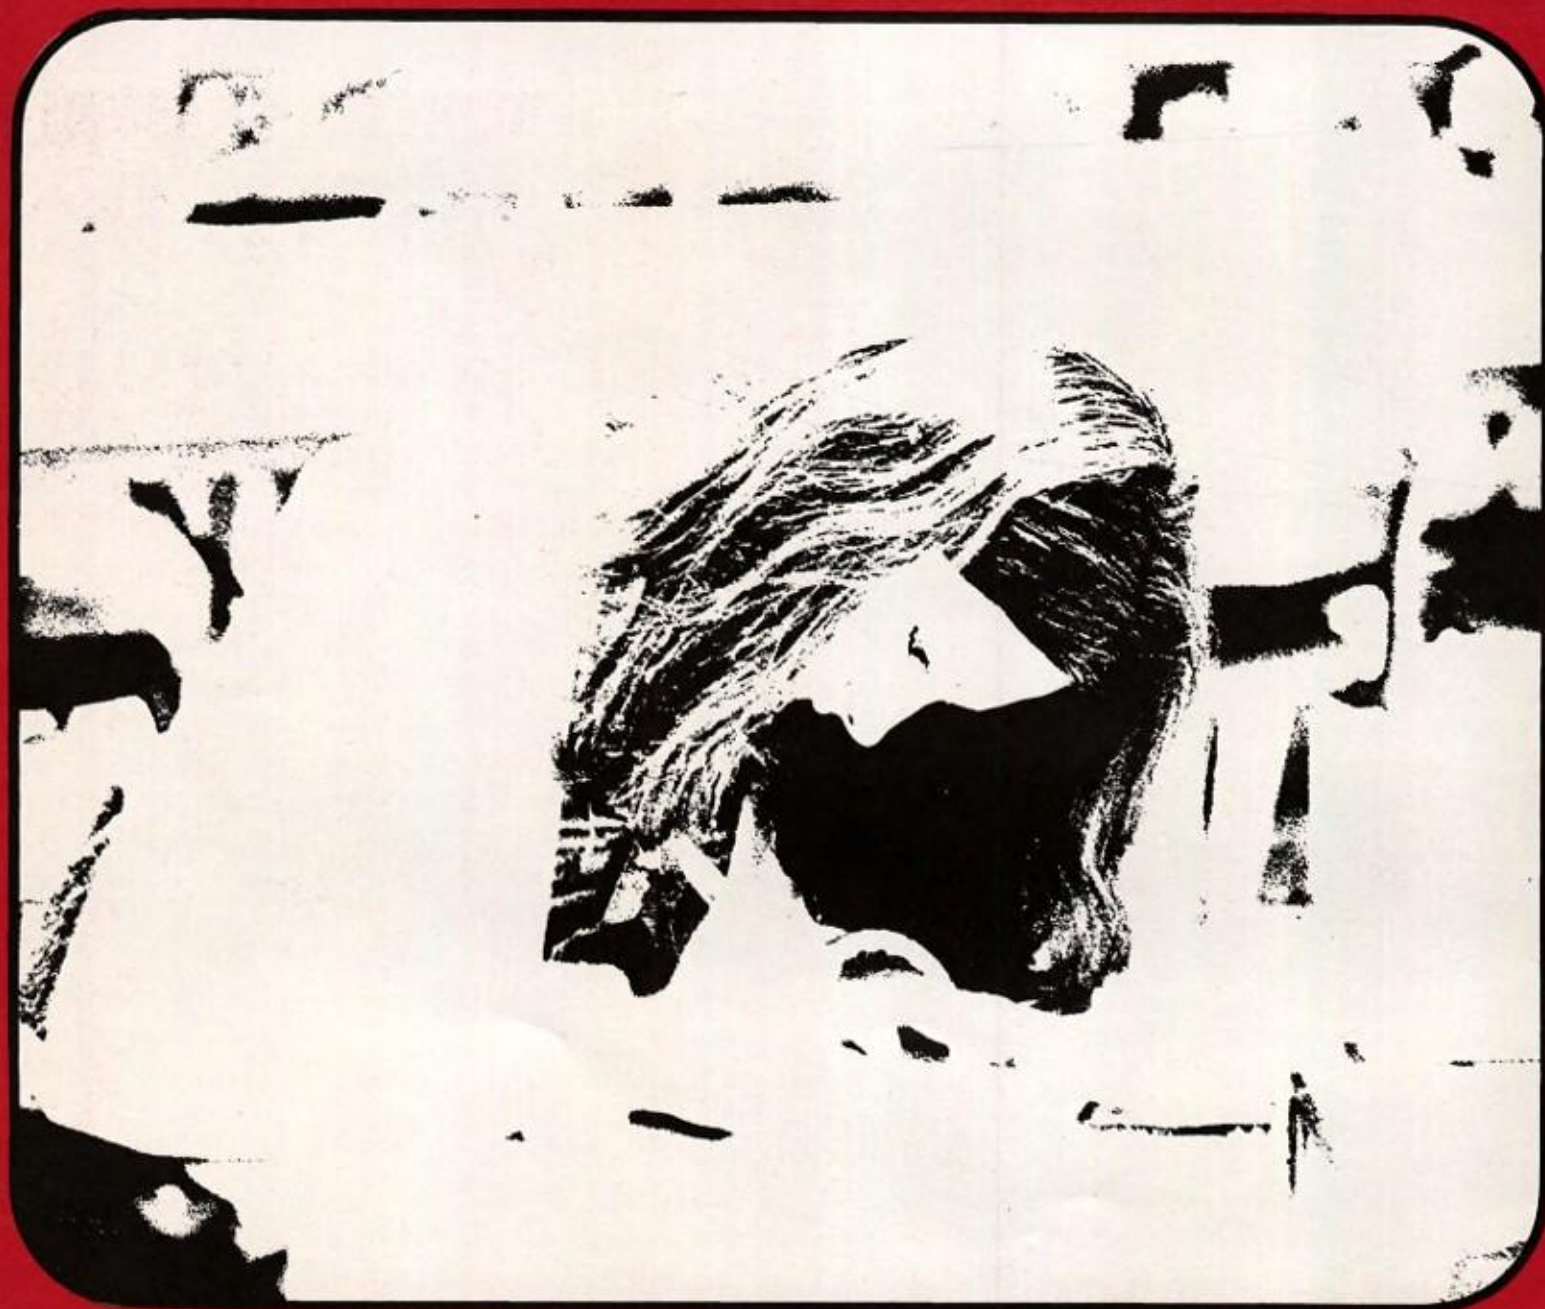

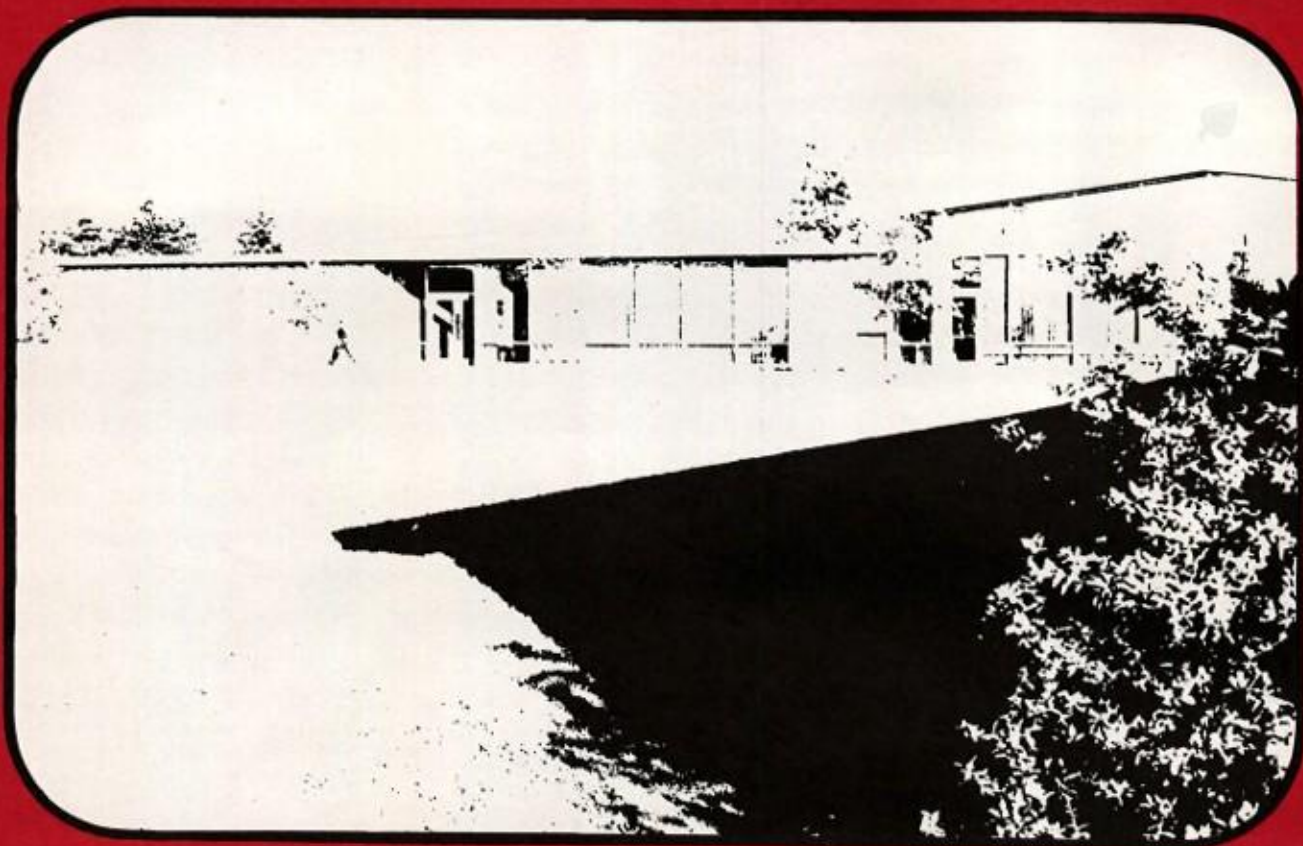

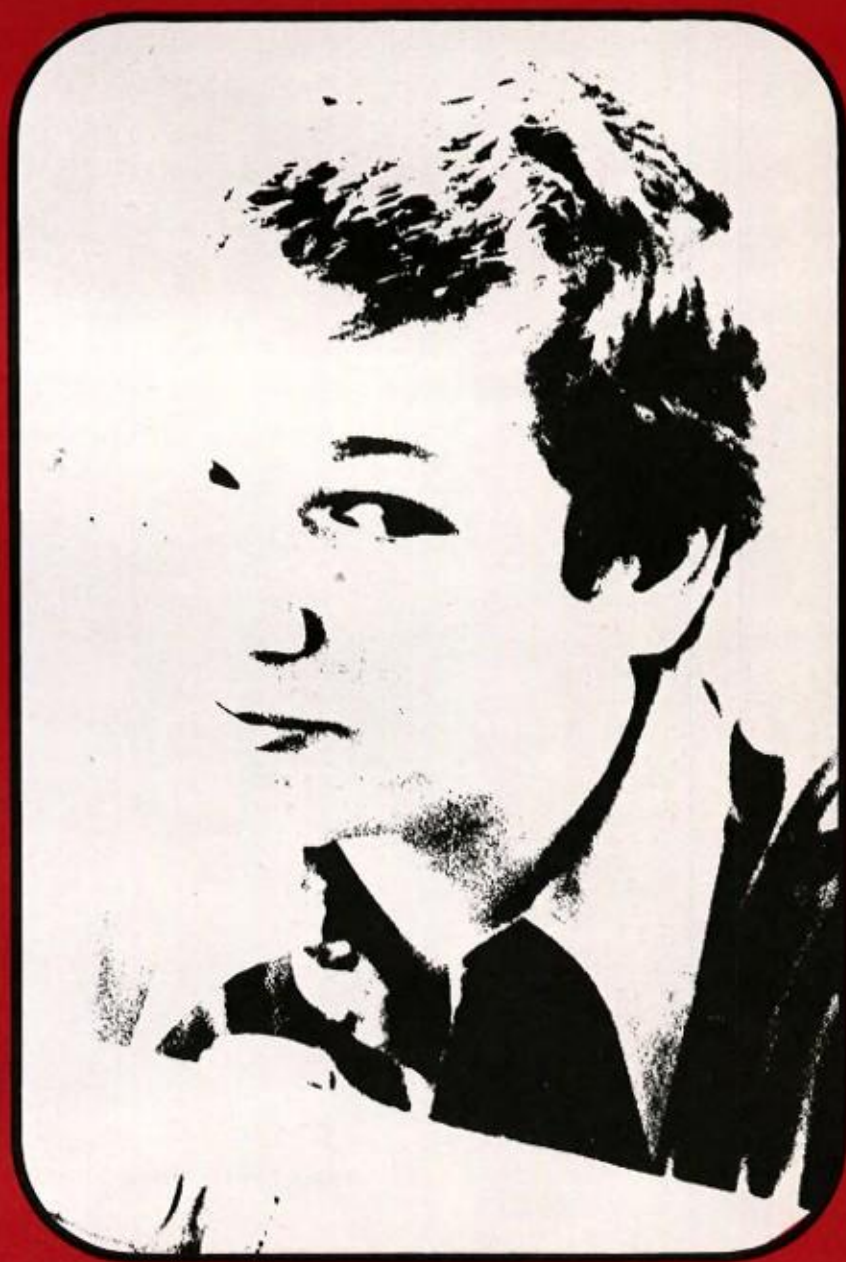

... is to save every day

till eternity passes away

Just to spend them with you

If I could make days last forever
 If words could make wishes come true
 I'd save everyday like a treasure and then Again, I would spend them with you

But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them

That you're the one

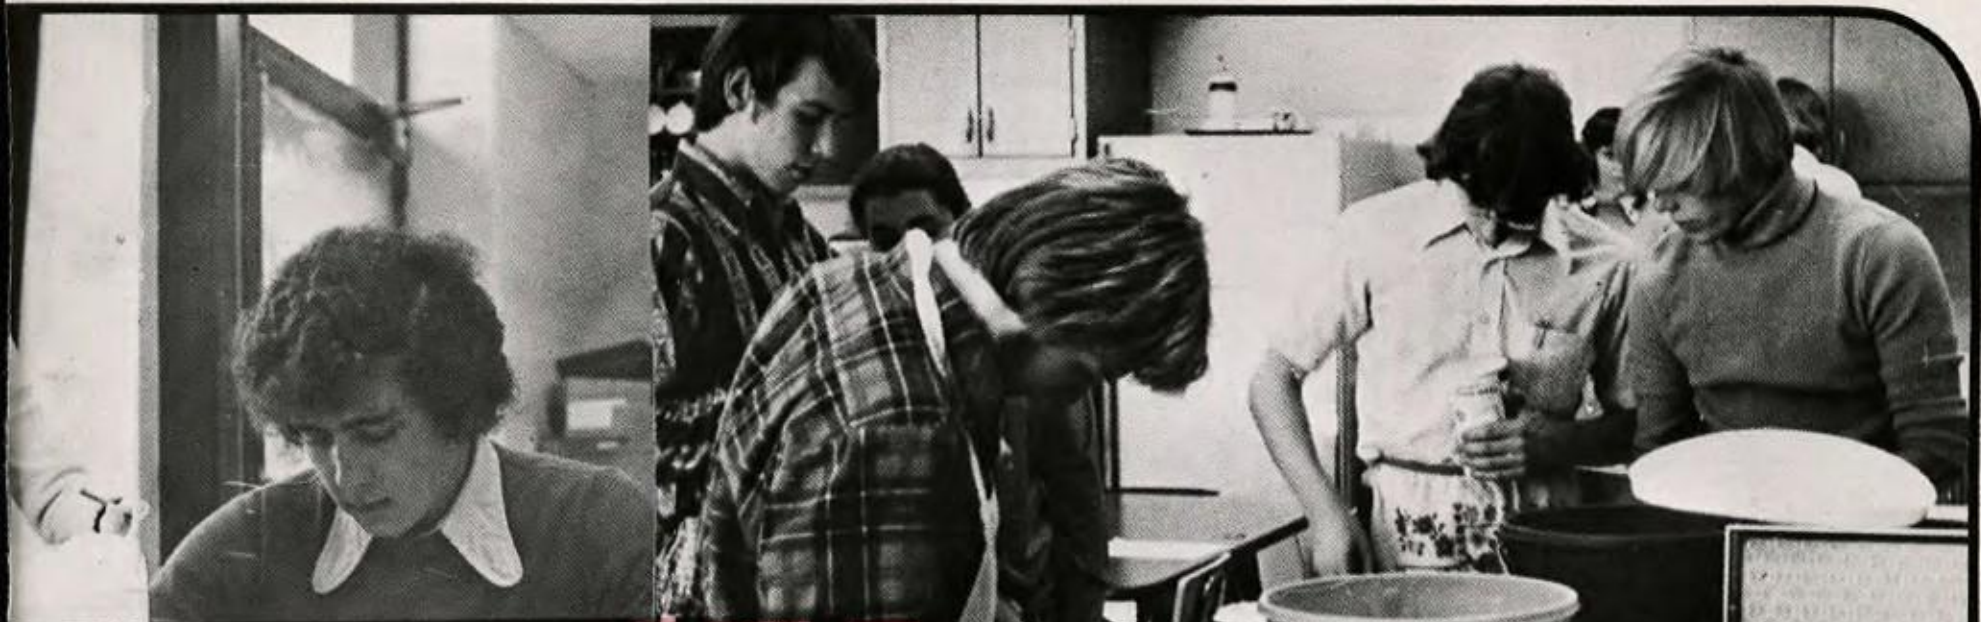

... I've looked around enough to know

I want to go through time with ...

If I had a box
just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true
The box would be empty
Except for the memory
of how they were answered by you.

I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do let me do it now, for I shall not pass this way again.

... TO GRADUATION—THE END ...

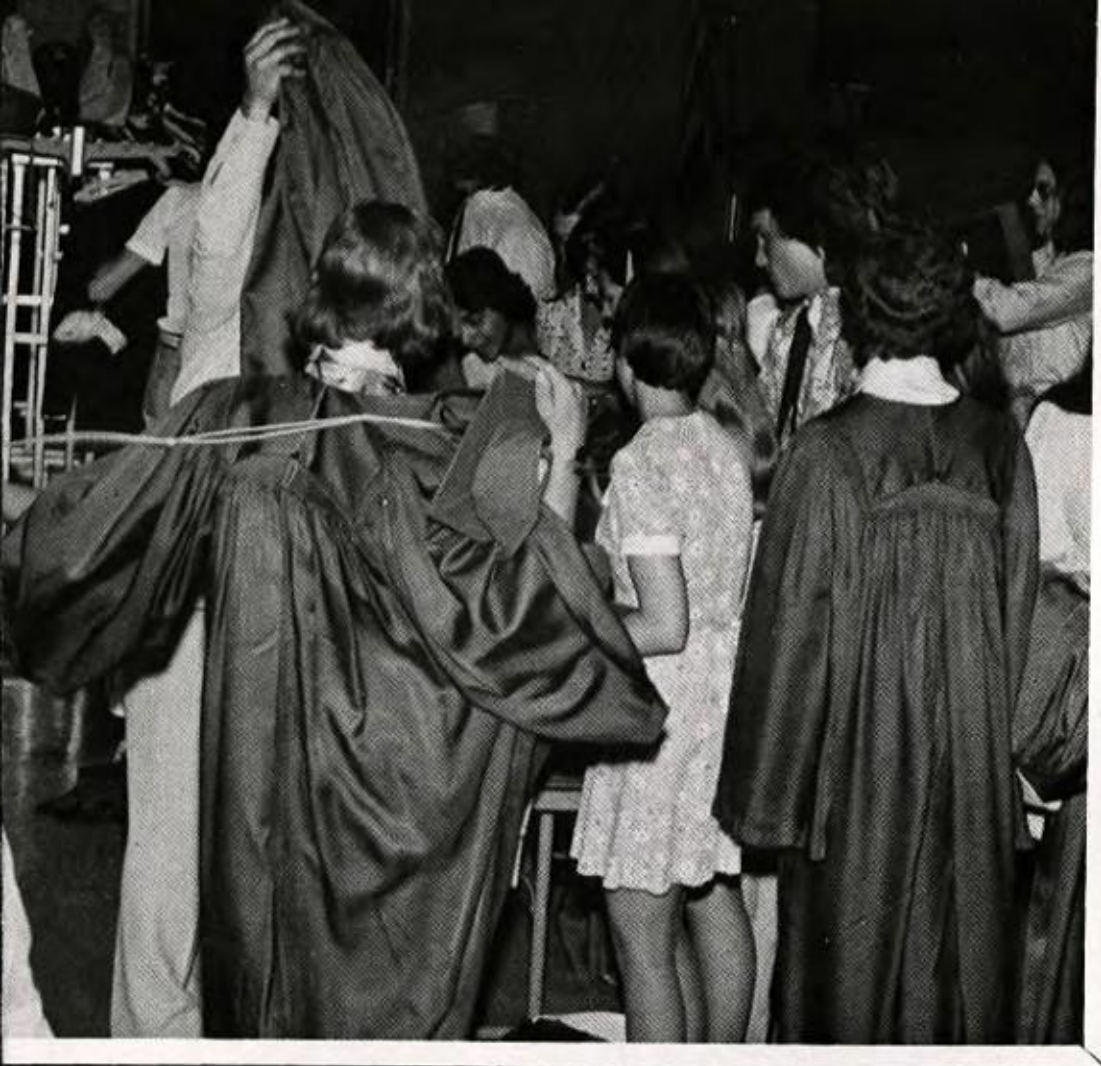

Following an organ procession that brought the graduates-to-be across the stage at Veteran's Memorial, Debby Lynne Shelts, the only student to have a perfect grade, spoke to the audience. Mrs. Ruth Morrison, Board of Education president, presented the diplomas.

... OF THE BEGINNING.

Mass confusion preceded the graduation ceremony, yet, during the commencement, all was quiet. Little emotion was felt until the Senior choir bid the class of 1976 farewell "Until We Meet Again". After the ceremony the mass confusion hit again while the graduates hurriedly removed their robes and went to receive their diplomas.

THE SAGA OF RALPH, THE RAIDER ROCK

Mark Adkins, Ken Burke, Dave Lenert, Brian Teeters, Matt Lukens, Fred Fraley.

Once upon a time, winter of the year 10,000 B.C., to be exact—John and Mary Slate gave birth to their fourth little piece of the rock, a boy they named Ralph.

"Good job, Mary" the proud father chuckled, "He's a chip off the old boulder. Have a cigar!"

As young Ralph grew . . . and grew, and grew, his mother realized that he wouldn't be the family rock she had dreamed of . . . he seemed to be destined for something greater.

Even in school, the difference was noted. A teacher recalls, "He wasn't content with learning to be a cornerstone. No, Ralph was always a bit off center, a little unpredictable."

Ralph's friends knew he was kind of wierd, but they thought it was very cool to be wierd, so they just let it pass.

During his junior year at Graveclod High, Ralph discovered the world of sports. Yes, you name it, Ralph played them all, sootball, slushball, faceball, he even rolled track! Ralph was selected all county rock.

After high school, Ralph just gave up on life. His friends were tired of his strange behavior. His parents had told him to leave and never return. So Ralph, having no other choice, rolled sadly away from the only home he had ever known.

Ralph tried really hard to adjust to living alone, scorned by every rock he met, but he just couldn't make it. So, Ralph Slate, rejected by rockkind, his family and friends, found himself a place where no one would bother him, so that he could rest in peace.

All the while this was happening, the world was doing all sorts of strange things. For instance, these crazy animals seemed to be popping up everywhere. Six of these uh . . . people stumbled upon a forlorn-looking rock on a moonlit Saturday night. Their names were Mark, Ken, Dave, Brian, Matt, and Fred, and they just happened to be from a school that desperately needed a mascot. The boys put two and two and two together and decided to take this obviously lonely rock to a place where it would have constant companionship for the rest of its days.

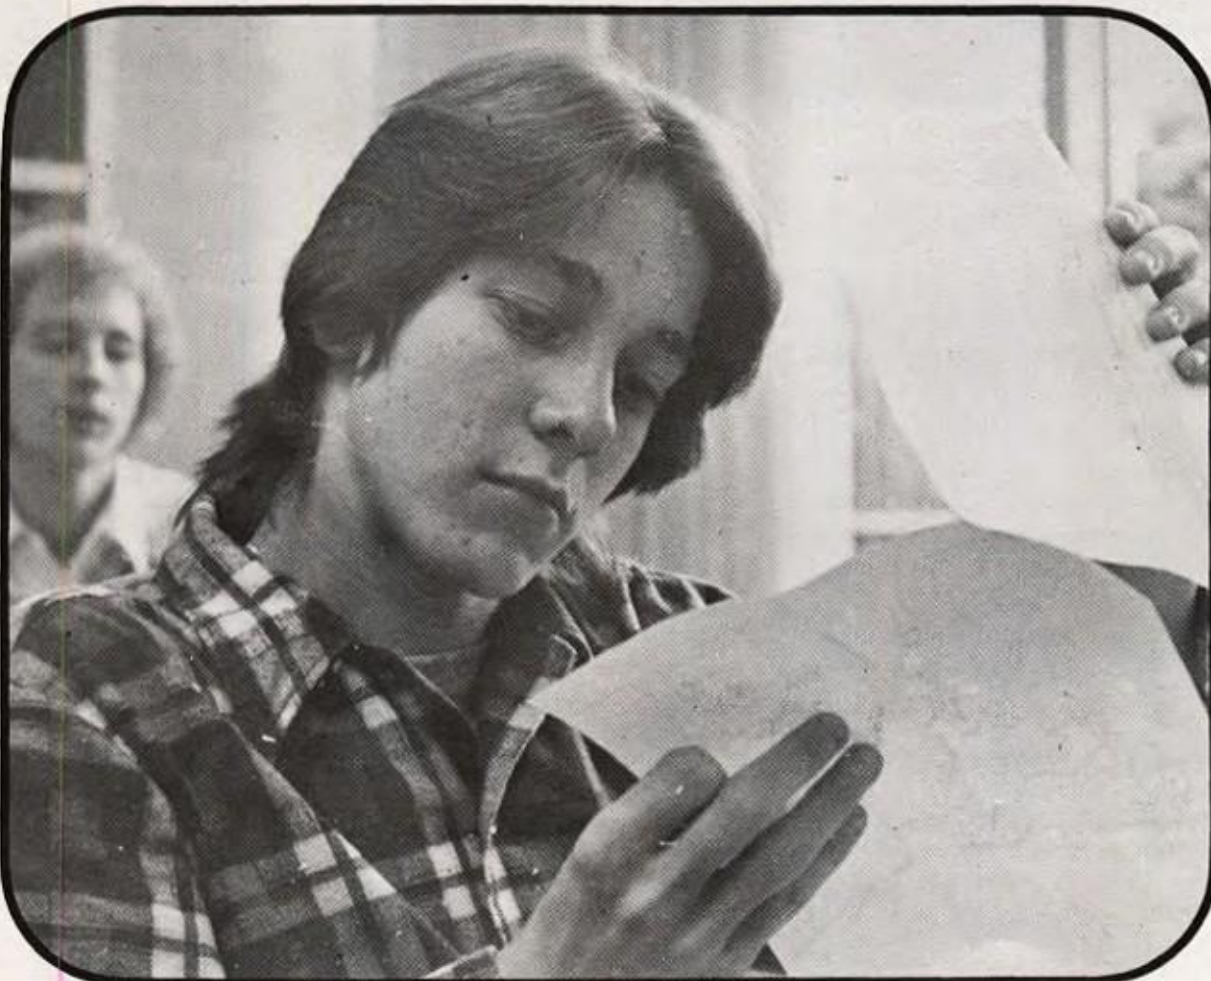

So, with much thought and effort, Ralph has been given a new coat of royal purple, and has led a relatively happy life. Naturally, not everything is perfect, and Ralph has had his share of ups and downs. For instance, the time when Ralph was siezed and painted with a traitorous "P".

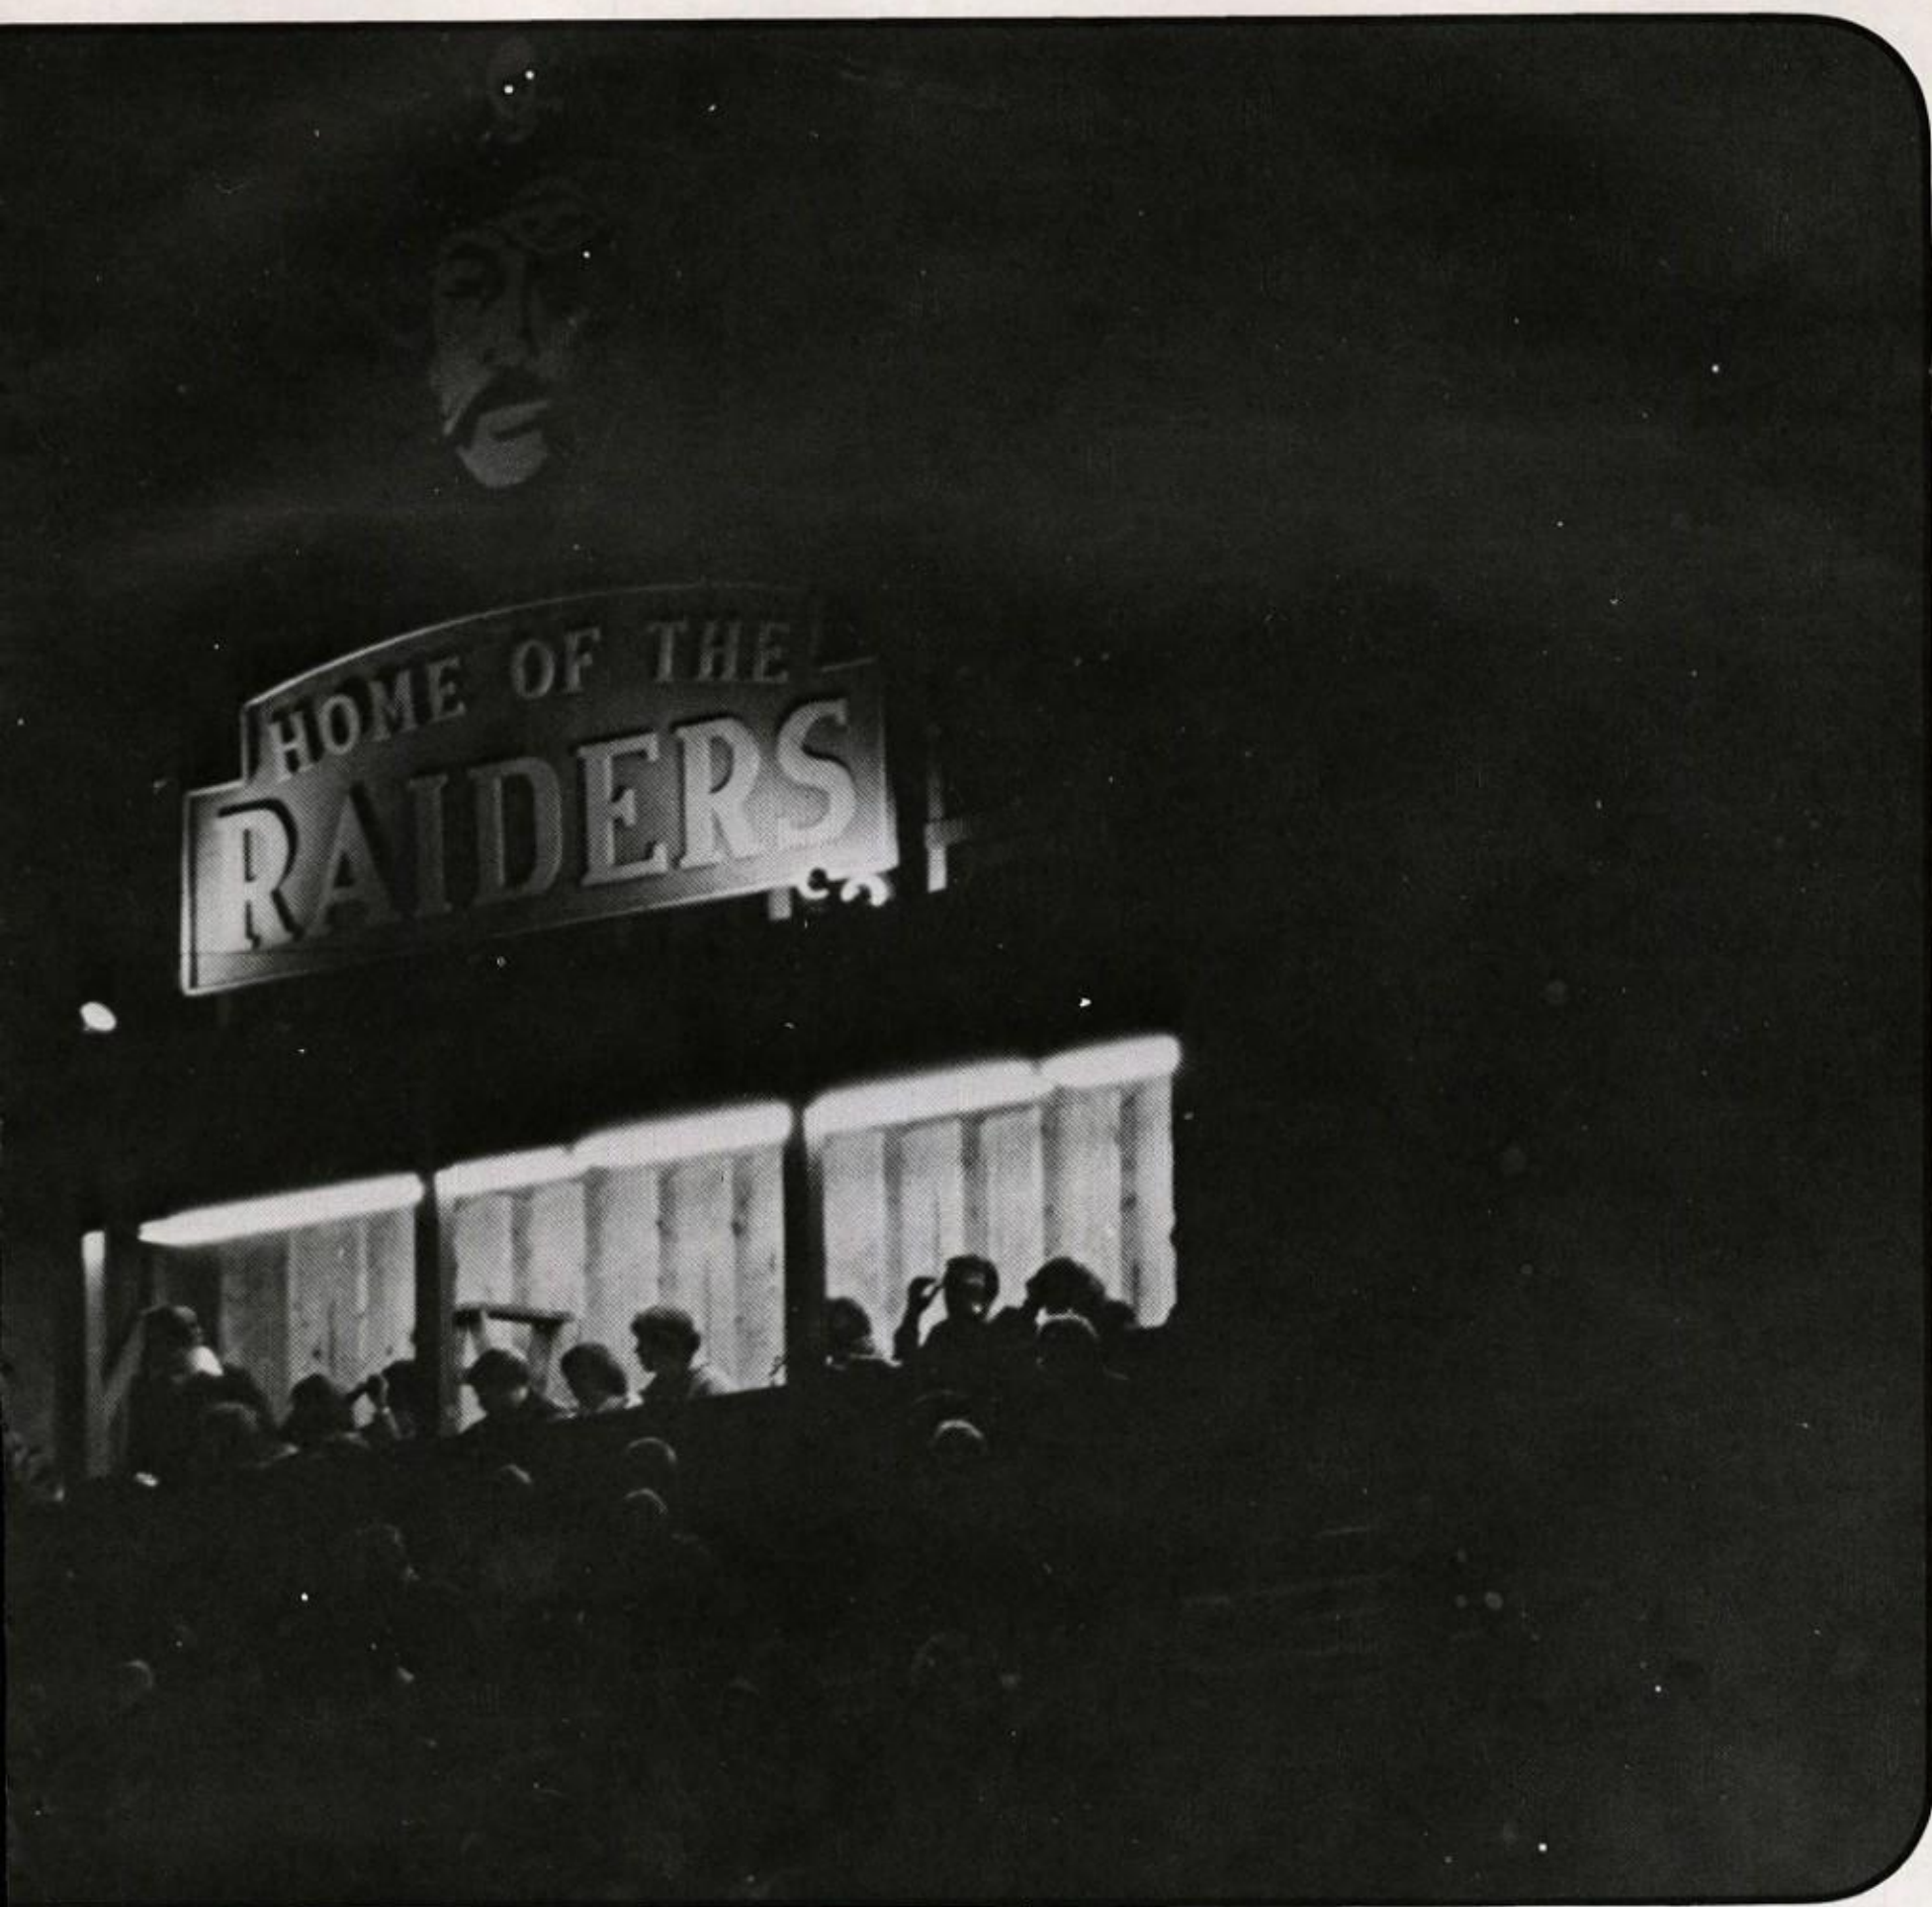

In spite of these traumatic experiences, Ralph seems to be adjusting very well to his new home, and the Reynolian staff would like to wish "The Rock" a long and prosperous life.

A FINAL WORD ...

After more than a year of work and worry this book is finished. Some people believe that the Reynolian just falls together by itself, but it has taken hundreds of hours of dedication by a small staff.

We have tried to preserve many of the moments of 1975-76 for you to enjoy in the years to come, in a manner of speaking saving "TIME IN A BOTTLE".

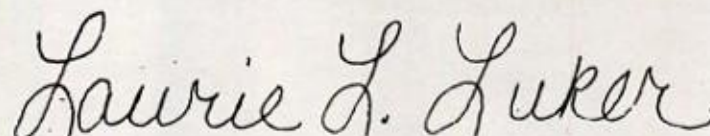

We would like to dedicate this book to the Parents of the Class of 1976, who are responsible to a great extent for the success we have enjoyed.

My special thanks to—our advisor—David Skeen, Herff Jones Publishing Representative—Pete Godzik, and our Professional Photographer—Mac McCrerey.

I am grateful to Ed Kiernan and Bob Ruisi who spent their time and effort taking pictures for various activities.

Last of all my thanks goes to the staff. Seniors—Dan Blaha, Jodi Chevalier, Mary Hibbs, Lizz Jacobsky (senior section), Kevin Komraus, Teresa Nemitz (clubs and classes), Tammi Souder (business), Ken Ulbrich, and Pam Wright. Underclassmen—Cathy Ades, Jim Foster, Robyn Fyock, Terri Haaf, Cindy Herold, Marc Unger (sports) and the members of the photography classes.

Sincerely yours,

Editor-in-chief
